A REVELATION ALMOST TOO TERRIBLY TRUE FOR BELIEF!

The Desperate Cruelty—The Corrupting and Diabolical Mysteries—The Sanctified Libidinism of Mormonism Fully and Openly Exposed

By a Fugitive from the Great Salt Lake City

The following deeply exciting Romance founded upon the direct truths to be found to create the most tremendous sensation, and must appeal to every sympathetic heart, and make the blood thrill with untold horror at the foul corruption—the vile adulterous connections—the unutterable cruelty and the utter depravity in which Brigham Young and his fiendish accomplices are steeped to the lips Every person in America who can read, should peruse the harrowing Tale of Temptation, Lust, Escape, Vengeance and Death, written by one who has suffered—deeply suffered—at the hands of Brigham Young and his accursed satellites and who escaped, as if by a miracle, to reveal to the world this atrocious infamy!

ARDINE;
OR,
THE AVENGER OF WRONG!
A Tale of Mormonism in New York and the Far West!
BY A FUGITIVE FROM UTAH!

CHAPTER I
THE VICTIM OF THE LYNCHERS

"Mercy
Death to heretics
The scene was that of twilight shadows, settling over the placers of Utah, within sight of that Babylon of the West Salt Lake City A man knelt in the presence of six others and with uplifted hands pleaded for his life His countenance was expressive more of surprise than fear and presented a handsome appearance, tinged, as it was, with the pallor of dread The six men who stood by were rudely clad and their features were of but rough unworthy mould which denoted the cautious and desperate villain

They were standing amid a clump of trees, which stood alone upon the plain, over the stoutest branch of one of which was suspended a stout rope the end doubled into a noose or loop

"Mercy! again gasped the kneeling man, in a tone of supplication

"You plead in vain sir! here, who seemed to be the ringleader It is the Prophet's command that we hang you to the nearest tree

What! cried the man, springing to his feet, and casting upon them a look of scorn are you men, and dare you do this The false hearted prophet has tainted me from your city, for this I did not care, for it was my duty to follow and rebuke him openly, but now you tell me that his orders were to hang me And for what offence

"Apostacy! replied the leader in a rude tone

"Apostacy! cried the victim Did I deserve hanging when I deserted the religion of my father —the religion of the Bible—and clung to yours? And now, when my eyes are opened and I see the base hypocrisy and corruption and fanaticism and throw off its shackles why do you assassinate me

"Don't listen to him Gideon said one addressing the leader If we were to let the rascal go, he would soon be in the States telling all sorts of stories about us

"You are right, Staunton, said the leader Ardine, you must die

I ask to live cried the unlucky victim but grant me one request

"What is it? asked Gideon, the leader

Permit me to write a farewell line to my sister—one of Brigham's wives

Well, you can do that we will give you five minutes time said the leader, stepping back

The victim took a piece of paper from his pocket and with a pencil, wrote a few hasty lines thereon then folding it carefully turned to the party and said—

Which of you will promise, sacredly to give this to my sister?

I will said a tall brawny man, with some touch of horror in his face, and, stepping boldly forward he took the letter

I thanks! And now, sirs, if you are determined to hang me up here like a dog I will die like a man Come I am ready

There was a tone of determined resolution in his manner that seemed to cast a spell over the bravado of the lynchers They proceeded to the base arm of an elm tree and then adjusted the rope round his neck

Death to all heretics and apostates! shouted the leader

Death to all apostates! echoed one and all And, as though this was the signal two men gave a sudden pull of the other end of the rope and Ardine was dangling between earth and heaven

The rope was speedily fastened around the tree and, having made all secure, the men stood for a second gazing upon their victim

"Come to horse, suddenly cried their leader Back to the holy city!

Each man vaulted into his saddle, and, a moment after six horsemen were galloping over the plain toward Salt Lake the dome of whose synagogue was just visible above the horizon, darkening in the twilight shadows

CHAPTER II
THE RESCUE

The dust had not yet settled in the wake of the six lynchers, when a lone traveller entered the clump of trees in which hung the body of Ardine His appearance was that of a rough westerner, who had travelled far, and become reckless of his dress and personnele, as well as the manner of his gait His features were rough and swarthy and his frame tall, bony and athletic He seemed to have happened there by chance, and without an object

The traveller's eye, however, soon fell upon the body of Ardine, and he started

"Death and the devil! he exclaimed, here's been some pesky work! Why, there must have been some of the old Illinois Regulators out here But, let's see? If I'm any judge o' human nater, that man don't look as if he ought to have been hung, I'll cut him down, at any rate And so saying, the stalwart traveller caught the body round the waist with his left arm, and, with the other, he drew a long knife from his belt and cut the rope.

Removing the clothing from the breast, he felt about the heart, and put his ear to it, and then as a gleam of satisfaction sparkled in his eye, he drew from his pocket a small canteen of brandy and began to wash the swollen sinews of the throat, putting a little on the lips and nostrils. A few moments passed before any signs of life were manifest, when a gurgling sound was heard in the throat and a slight convulsion appeared in the chest

"Man or devil good or bad, I'll do my best to bring you back to life, old fellow, said the traveller, rubbing the neck and body more vigorously than ever

Presently the man opened his eyes in a fixed stare, for a moment, when his lips began to move Then his hand raised intuitively to his bruised neck—the face began to take expression and the entire body to manifest returning life

"Take a sip of this, it'll do you good, said the traveller, lifting his head on one arm, and presenting him the canteen of brandy

The reviving man grasped the canteen to his lips and, though swallowing with difficulty, succeeded in drinking a considerable quantity Its influence was effective, and Ardine soon sat upright, and after a little began to show signs of reason and speech

"Well, old fellar, I rather think you must have begun to smell brimstone that time. But what the deuce were you strung up there for? Can't you tell a feller? said the droll traveller

After several efforts, Ardine succeeded in gaining the power of speech

I can't explain it now my friend, he replied, in broken, gasping sentences I was hung by a lot of Mormons, simply because I became convinced of the corruption and hypocrisy of the church, and wished to leave it

Is that all cried the stranger "Blast their Millenized hearts I just wish our party was big enough, I'd knock the woole city into a second Nauvoo

"But who my friend are you? And how came you hither so opportunely? asked Ardine

"Well, to answer both questions at once replied the traveller, "I'm Josh Stratum, from the State of Illinoy, and belong to a party of California emigrants, now encamped about a half mile across the plain After pitching my tent, as some of 'em said we were in sight of Salt Lake City, I thought I'd walk across and take a view of it by moonlight I was passing through this little strip o' timber, when I seed a man dressed in a black riding dress, appeared upon the ground

"It thy task for me at the house, she said, addressing the servant "you to tell her that I have ventured on a short ride to try the pony

"Yes, madame replied the servant

Then approaching the noble horse, she patted him gently on the neck, until he looked around and his fierce eyes seemed to subdue into woman's gentleness

"Now Montezuma! for a quick race she cried as she vaulted, unassisted, into the saddle

The horse apparently understanding her words scarcely waited for her to arrange herself, but dashed off on the road, and over the plains like a flying cloud swept by a hurricane

The moon had just risen above the horizon like a ball of fire burning, wild, and as red as human face seemed to be, flying with the wonder upon the flying horse and its veiled rider as they swept like dark messengers of a coming plague.

So many minutes elapsed—scarce the quarter of an hour—before Linda Arden rein her fiery steed within the clump of trees known as the Eastern Grove, and gazed wildly around to see the swinging form of her murdered father "But he was not to be seen Spurring her horse from tree to tree she gazed with distended eyes, and hearing bosom but could catch no glimpse of his body Her heart began to sink within, for fear that she had taken the wrong track—might never find him—might never see him again even in death when Ardine had been hung Then her eye caught an exclamation of joy—There was the rope, swinging in the evening breeze and to the end of it by the noose which encircled his neck They had performed to the letter their work—to adjust the rope properly about his neck—and he had been able to avert it, and escape Her heart leapt wildly with joy for Louis Ardine was free

The sad past thought came like a cloud over her mind and dashed aside her hopes—It was the probability that he be then executioners had not only hung but buried him There was a pallor visible in this thought, that would not be policy to let the body hang there as food for the vulture, and an object of horror to every passer by Linda grew pale and tremulous as this thought caught her mind She rode over the entire ground, and round and round the grove, peering into every shadow in search of her brother's grave But her search was in vain, and disappointed and dejected, she was about to turn her horse homeward, when her eyes caught sight of the camp fires of the emigrant party to the south ward

Fired with a new hope she applied the spur to her spirited steed and thus away to search the camp A joyful heart Ere the first eye detected amid the group, was he—her brother!—saved from the terrible death to which he had been consigned! Throwing herself from her horse, she rushed into his arms exclaiming,

Lemuel! brother! Thank God you are not dead!

Sister! can it be? and have you left those Mormon miscreants to fly with me back to our native land cried Ardine as he clasped her to his breast

No—no, not that! said Linda hesitatingly, but I feared that you were dead—unburied perhaps—and—

And that I am not is no fault of them who present to lynch me

And how did you escape? asked Linda anxiously

Ardine proceeded to narrate the manner of his release by the emigrant.

I bless him in my heart! said Linda, when he had concluded "but whither go you now, brother?

These friends have requested me to go with them to California You will accompany us, and—

Linda turned away, and with a bound, leapt into the saddle

"No brother! she cried, 'now that you are safe I am satisfied But, brother—I am a Mormon!'

"Ardine sprang forward and grasped at the horse's reins but the animal darted aside, and he missed his hold

Farewell! brother! cried the infatuated girl, "may God bless you on your journey to the Eldorado! As for me—I return to the Holy City! And she spurred her horse for the return

"Thou may a brother's curse and a brother's misery, rest forever on your soul, and blight every hour of your life! cried Ardine, in a tone of fearful rage

The girl cast one look backward The moon fell upon her blanched cheek, as she heard the curse, and then, as if prompted by desperation, she dashed away over the plain, and was soon out of sight!

CHAPTER IV
A PROPHET'S VISION.

We will not follow the unhappy Ardine through his long and perilous march across the Desert, nor portray the many heart pangs he felt as he thought of wending his sad footsteps from the home of his childhood, and friends upon whom he now only lived to hurl his avenging wrath Another scene demands our attention

Let us enter this splendid mansion of brown stone, just fronting the Temple It is not less gaudy and grand than some of them which adorn the Fifth avenue in New York, and is far more unique in its architectural designs—Let us enter the home of the Prophet

We will not now pass through the gorgeous drawing rooms, furnished with Oriental magnificence, nor peer into the private apartments fitted and adorned with sumptuous and voluptuous splendor The room we enter is the library, or business apartment of the Prophet Its furniture consists of a few easy chairs a couple of lounges or divans, with a centre table, beside a book case containing the writings of Joe Miller, Lives of the Elders and his own MSS The walls were ornamented with portraits of the prominent men among the Latter Day Saints, and maps of every country on the globe Such was the library of the Governor and Prophet of Utah

Seated in one of the arm chairs near the window intently engaged in reading a newspaper which was evidently from the States, was a man of middle age with a keen black eye and prominent features, a hooked nar row and high and covered with a sparsity of hair

Curse the Administration! he exclaimed, suddenly throwing down the paper but Brother Brigham will be a match for them

For whom? said a voice near by

The man looked up and beheld standing in the door way another of about his own age of a more but shrewd aspect, and an eye of keen piercing brightness His forehead was broader and more evenly developed and his hair was beginning to be mingled with grey

Good evening, Brother Brigham, cried the worshipper in a deferential tone, and the man reverently

Our welcome, Elder Pratt, said the Prophet By the way, I have embroiled myself yesterday, the anniversary of my nativity, and the sister of your last wife, Linda Ardine

You speak of a truly beautiful creature I saw her once in New York where she resided with her aunt, Sophia Elder Pratt could greatly admired Linda was a very lovely girl and I am sure would be a valuable addition to our—help I mean—to our family circle—with my wife Mrs Young and your sister Leonora to the Prophet said how much he admired it

Well

He said that she appeared to him last night in a dream and then the Lord commanded him to take her to himself

My sister exclaimed Linda, startled at the thought and fixing a vacant stare in the Elder's face

Yes it is a joy my dear Pratt so sweet a girl should continue among here ones said the Elder shrewdly

My sister repeated Linda a stractedly

Remember Linda that the will of the Lord, as soon stated through the Prophet should be implicitly obeyed

And does Brigham with many wives of my family Am not I to bear his wrath and is it not enough Is it not sufficient with my brother's death

Your brother's death! echoed the Elder starting back in surprise your brother was not murdered he was banished

Not so do not try to deceive me Pratt, for you are not My brother was pressed by banished but the process through which he was pressed were that he should be lynched—hanged—I know all this fact

Wilt thou tell the instrument of thy destruction that he is forgiven and pray for the forgiveness of his own sins

PROVIDENCE, Sept 10

Thursday morning 8 o'clock

A prayer meeting was held at this hour, in the Central Baptist church conducted by the Rev Dr Stearns

At the same hour a meeting of the Missionaries and those under appointment with their friends was held in the lecture room of the Broad St Church at which fervent and affecting appeals were made by Dr Schauffler of the Turkish mission, Mr Gleason of the Choctaw mission, Dr Armstrong of the Sandwich Islands mission and Mr Peet of the China Mission. No one present could doubt that missionaries found their work most blessed and that they greatly rejoiced in it

At 9 o'clock the session of the Board was resumed — Prayer offered by Rev President Hopkins of Williams' College

[illegible]

On the subject of provision for disabled missionaries and for the widows and children of deceased missionaries, Hon William [illegible] advocated that their wants be supplied as [illegible] in the ordinary resources furnished by the churches. Rev Dr Walcott of Providence advocated the establishment of a special fund

A [illegible] College were presented by Dr Armstrong who for 25 years has been a missionary at the Sandwich Islands and Mr Beckwith, President of the College

It was clearly shown that such an institution was needed for the education of the [illegible] children of the missionaries and of the thousands of native youth to perpetuate the blessings of freedom and christianity there and [illegible] through the Marquesas [illegible] the [illegible] sending out [illegible] from this country

The Hawaiian Government has already given $10 000 towards it. The American Board $5000 and several individuals $1 000 each — and Messrs Armstrong and Beckwith have been deputed by the Hawaiian Government to apply for and receive the amount needed to endow the college — [illegible] $50 000 They have a resident charter, [illegible]

Friday Morning — Prayer was offered by Rev Dr Sweetser of Worcester Mass

[illegible]

Rev Dr Walcott of Providence expressed the hope that ladies as well as gentlemen would aid Oahu College — $500 had already been given by one of them

[illegible]

Rev Mr Jessup (a son of the Vice President of the Board) soon to re-embark as a missionary to Syria and Rev Mr Schneider to return next month to the Armenian mission made farewell remarks, in which they welcomed all to the duties and privileges of laborers in the vineyard of their common master—here, or there.

Rev Mr Wood one of the Secretaries in behalf of the Prudential Committee, and of the Board thanked the people of Providence for their generous hospitality, and uttered words of encouragement to the friends of missions to prosecute the work entrusted to them A great and open door is opened to them,—it should be entered upon with faith and love

Rev Mr Clapp Pastor of the church where the Board met responded to the parting words of the Secretary and in fitting eloquent and touching language spoke of the pleasure it gave them to provide for such hundred guests,—of the present and solemn scenes here witnessed—of the impressions made—of their continued remembrance of the friends and their hope of meeting again after the trials of earth are closed The christian never parts to meet no more

After singing the Doxology 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow,' and the benediction from Rev Wm Allen of Massachusetts, the Board adjourned at ½ past 10 o'clock

Ample provision made for the convenience of reporters and your correspondent is indebted especially to your brother of the Providence Post for the kind offer of assistance while here

The weather is delightful and the hospitalities of the city freely proffered

An interesting and affecting scene took place, in the meeting of the missionaries with their families held at 8 o'clock this morning, in the vestry of the Beneficent Church

A child of a widowed mother, formerly a missionary among the Cherokees was consecrated to God by baptism during the services

The ordinance was administered by Rev John Maltby of Bangor of which church the mother is a member The closing prayer was offered by Rev Mr Gleason a Missionary among the Choctaws D

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
Augusta, August 26 1857

An adjourned session of the Executive Council will be held at the Council Chamber, in Augusta on TUESDAY the 29th day of September next Attest

ALDEN JACKSON Sec'y of State

The State Fair.

The opening of the State Fair takes place on Tuesday next, and the officers of the Society are now on the ground, and are actively engaged in making the necessary arrangements and the entries already made, with the interest which is manifested on the part of the people out of the city, give the fullest assurance that the Fair will be one of much importance and interest

This is not a mere local Fair, but embraces the whole State There is, therefore, a duty which our city authorities and our citizens generally, especially our business men and all interested in the honor and welfare of the city owe to the occasion They should consult with the officers of the Society, in order to secure the best arrangements for the great est success They should feel a personal interest in promoting the objects of the Fair, by contributing articles for exhibition, and in every way cause the occasion to pass off with the fullest satisfaction to all

Thousands of people will doubtless visit the city during the next week, and it is important that arrangements should be so made that none need go away dissatisfied

A little earnest work for a few days will give a large return in satisfaction and comfort to all concerned in this great exhibition of the arts and industry, the business and the progress of Maine

Suitable measures should be taken to accommodate the public with a safe, easy and cheap conveyance between the exhibition hall and the cattle grounds

The exhibition should be improved by our traders our mechanics and our manufacturers, to show to the people what they can offer in the way of business and work

We are happy to notice that the Mechanics Association have determined to open their Hall, Cabinet Room and Library to the public during the continuance of the Fair, and we trust that other public bodies will take an interest in this great occasion

It will be remembered that some beautiful prizes are offered for the best specimens of female equestrianism and it is to be hoped there will be a fair competition for them

We give these hurried suggestions in the hope of waking up our people to what may and ought to be done, and securing their activity in seeing that nothing is omitted on their part

MEETING LAST EVENING Since writing the above, we are gratified to report that an enthusiastic meeting of citizens interested in the success of the Fair was held last evening at the office of the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society A committee, consisting of Hon E L Hamlin, H B Farnham, Esq and Wm P Wingate Esq, was appointed to advise and consult with the Trustees, upon matters pertaining to the Fair

A committee was also appointed to ascertain what accommodations would be furnished to visitors at the Fair, and arrange with private boarding houses and citizens for their accommodation Saml P Strickland, Thos A. White Chas K Miller Israel B Norcross, R S Prescott Samuel Jewett and Charles O Record were appointed on this committee

James Dunning Israel B Norcross, Dan'l P Wingate and Henry A Wood, were appointed to arrange conveyances between the halls and the grounds of the Show, at a price not to exceed ten cents for each person each way

It is understood the ladies will be called upon to assist in decorating the Hall.

We trust our citizens generally, for the credit of Bangor, will exhibit activity and zeal in aiding the committees and the Trustees to perfect all the arrangements in a satisfactory manner.

THE ELECTION RETURNS —The Kennebec Journal last evening gives official returns from all the towns in the State, except Deer Isle, Islandport and Mercer, and 14 plantations.

Smith, Democrat, (who receives the votes of the Patten whigs also,)	42 260
Morrill over Smith,	11,799

The towns and plantations yet to be reported, in 1856 voted as follows, For Hamlin 607, for Wells 881, for Patten 70 These unreported places include the French settlements on the St John, which then gave a Democratic majority of 400 They are now reported to have elected a Republican representative, and the probability therefore is, that they have thrown a corresponding vote for Governor, and made a net Republican gain of some 400 votes We think, therefore, that Mr Morrill's majority is a little more than 12,000.

In the State Senate the Journal puts down 30 Republicans and 1 Democrat, (Hobart of Washington, who is elected by split tickets.) In the House 117 Republicans to 34 Democrats

For County Officers, the Republicans have elected every one of their candidates in the whole State, except one in the eastern district of Lincoln county, where Daniel Rose, Democrat, is elected Register of Deeds.

The Republican victory is thus seen to be as complete as it could well be FACETIOUS —The Augusta Age says "the democrats cannot possibly lose more than one Senator from last year True enough—considering that you had but one He has gone, hook and line, though

PENOBSCOT AND CASTINE —There was an error in the reported vote of the town of Penobscot, which should be corrected Smith's vote is 108 instead of 168 In Castine Morrill had 97 instead of 93

The Union-savers in Aroostook.

A friend in Aroostook county recently in a private letter alluded to the condition of the democracy in that county He remarks that "while the Cary Democracy have been saving the Union, the other wing has run away with the Custom House appointments, having persuaded Collector Burns Director Clifford, or somebody else that they saved the Union too Patriots are often but men, and having performed great and meritorious services for their country are not indifferent to the honor or the reward So a fierce contest rages Who saved the Union, and who ought to be paid for the service, is the main question But the high contending parties are not content with discussing the the general question Each denies the other the possession of those common every day virtues that are not of much account with some, but the absence of which makes man a villain This, (says our friend,) is a personal matter with which we have nothing to do But for the credit of our county, should the echo of their warfare reach your ears, I must beg you not to believe more than half they say of each other We can't afford to have it believed abroad that one little county contains so many desperate knaves as they represent each other to be

BANKS STOCK RISING —Hon J Z Goodrich has finally determined to support Mr Banks for Governor, notwithstanding his recent letter opposing the nomination A letter from Mr G published in the Boston Journal, in which he declares himself satisfied with Mr Banks declaration of principles at the Worcester Convention, and says he shall now "cheerfully give him his vote and influence" We are gratified to see Mr Goodrich take this position as his former letter coming from a man in his position in the Republican party, exercised a very discouraging influence upon the friends of the regular nomination

The New York papers contain lists of 230 persons, known to have been on board the Central America, and supposed to be lost — We see no names of persons mentioned as belonging to Maine except that of Mr Stephen Murch of Portland, a blacksmith, who had sold out his business in California, and was returning to his wife and children

In the list of saved (182 in number) are the names of John N Crofts, W F Fletcher, Samuel W Look and B H Ridley of Maine Mr Fletcher is reported of "Broomfield" —perhaps Bloomfield There appear to have been very few Maine people on board, as far as known

The Captain of the bark Ellen,(which picked up 49 of the passengers, and arrived at New York on Monday, from Norfolk) thinks that the fore and aft schooner which was seen near the scene of the disaster, must have saved some others It is strongly hoped that Capt Herndon may be on board this schooner The Ellen searched ten hours for the survivors.

A gentleman who came in the cars yesterday, and who had conversed with one of the survivors, states that reports very prejudicial were made concerning the conduct of the officers and crew of the Central America, with the exception of the Captain and a few others

THE NEW REPUBLICAN PAPER AT WASHINGTON. The new paper started at Washington by Geo M Weston, Esq, of Maine, has made its appearance. It is appropriately named "The Republic, and is published semi-weekly in good sized folio form It is evidently to be a most vigorous and effective national organ of the Republican party—such an organ as is greatly needed in the present state of politics —and one which is to demonstrate that the Republican party is based upon true national principles, and is in fact the only national party The paper is edited by Mr Weston and Mr Goodle of North Carolina, and printed by Buell & Blanchard.

Captain Herndon, of the lost steamship Central America, had an insurance of $5000 upon his life, in the New England Life Insurance Company.

The summit of Mount Washington was covered with snow, on Thursday of last week.

LOCAL AND MAINE ITEMS.

BALLOON ASCENSION. We notice that arrangements are going rapidly forward for the approaching Balloon Ascension. A large lot on Summer street is being enclosed by a high board fence, and preparations are made for a supply of gas with which to inflate the balloon This will be one of the most interesting features in the exhibition of the approaching week Those who wish to witness the inflation, and see the whole performance will do well to secure their tickets soon

ENTRIES AT THE STATE FAIR Our citizens will remember that according to notice given in posters heretofore, no entries will be received from Bangor, after Saturday, (to morrow) This restriction is necessary that space may be had for other parts of the State

Central Bridge is again passable for carriages. The repairs will probably be finished this week.

THE PRIZE TRUMPETS The silver trumpets provided as prizes for the best playing of fire engines at the State Fair, may be seen in the window of Messrs Fenno & Hale on Main street. They are magnificent articles, and will stimulate the boys to "break her down hard "

SOME PUMPKINS Nathaniel Harlow, Esq, of this city, raised from one seed five pumpkins, which weighed one hundred and ten pounds

CARS FOR THE STATE FAIR We learn that arrangements have been made between the Androscoggin & Kennebec and the Kennebec & Portland Railroads, whereby a connection of the two will be made at Fairfield, in the forenoon, to continue during the week of the State Fair at Bangor This will give facilities for persons wishing to visit the Fair to pass over the route, without stopping over night at Fairfield, as has recently been the case — There will probably be a connexion at the same place, during the week aforesaid, in the afternoon For further particulars we refer to the bills

FUNERAL OF YOUNG LOWELL The funeral of Charles Henry Lowell was attended yesterday afternoon and drew together a very large number of our most estimable citizens to testify their sympathy with the deeply bereaved family. The house was entirely filled, and a large number remained without The boys of the High School, with their teachers, were present, and were much affected in taking their farewell look of their comrade, who was much endeared to them by his courtly form and genial, active disposition and frank manners which made him a favorite Among those present were Mr Crosby and family, with the unfortunate author of the sad and solemn occasion, who mingled their tears with the afflicted and followed with them to the grave Rev Mr Battles made a most impressive prayer — Union, Thursday

COST OF GETTING FLOUR FROM THE WEST The State of Maine speaks of a lot of flour just received by E McKenney, Portland, which was taken on the Grand Trunk cars at Detroit, and delivered in Portland without steamship ment The cost of bringing this from Detroit to Portland, a distance of 849 miles, is 10c cents per barrel At Montreal the loaded cars are taken across the St Lawrence or bridge boats in the same way as baggage cars across the Susquehanah at Havre de Grace

Quite a "movement" is taking place in Augusta preparatory to building the new jail — The "Old Court House," or latterly Concert Hall, has been purchased at auction by Al Staples, who intends to move it across the street, upon the corner north of the Mansion House—which involves a further movement of the buildings already there Mr K is removing his buildings, in the rear of "Concert Hall" buildings, to various localities about town.

THE MURDERER KNIGHT SENTENCED — George Knight, who was convicted at the Androscoggin term of the S J Court last March of the murder of his wife on the 6th of Oct last—and whose Counsel filed exceptions to the rulings of the presiding Judge at the trial was Tuesday sentenced to the death penalty, by Chief Justice Tenney—the Supreme Court having overruled the exceptions taken by the counsel for the prisoner

GOOD NEWS TO THE AFFLICTED Several New York gentlemen, who passed through our village a few days since, on their way home from a pleasure excursion to Moose Head Lake had each a package of sand, to be presented, we understand, to that very benevolent old gentleman, "a retired physician, whose sands of life are almost run It is thought that by an economical use of this new supply of sand the old doctor may prolong his precious life for some time, if not longer and in the mean time accumulate "a pile of rocks sufficiently large to enable "his heirs and assigns to "gull the flats for an indefinite period, after the old gent's last sand shall have run out —Dexter Gem

The Brunswick brick yards will turn out about 1,000,000 of brick this season.

Two ships are in progress of construction at Richmond, one of 900 tons by M S Hagar & Co, the other by Harrison Springer It is intended to have them both finished this fall

Mr Samuel Trufant was drowned while bathing alone in the pond above Winthrop village on the 6th inst

ACCIDENT On Monday afternoon as the brig Luinburg, Capt Bartlett, was dropping down the river, Frank McCormick fell from aloft to the deck, breaking his thigh, and, it is feared, injured him internally. Dr Pollard of Orrington, set his leg and he was brought back to this city and placed in the Marine Hospital under the charge of Dr Mason — Union.

Marcellus N C Sheppard and Mehitable Doughty were arrested in Topsham last week, and examined on charge of robbing and setting fire to the store of Uriah Grant in that town, about a year ago They were bound over for trial

ACCIDENT IN SIDNEY Mr James Spencer, residing in the north part of Sidney, recently met with a serious accident, in attempting to to jump over the fender of a threshing machine, his foot slipping, was caught in the teeth of the machine, and mutilated in a horrible manner—crushing the bones to such an extent as to make amputation of the leg necessary.

ROBBED ON THE CARS. Wm. Cooper, a ship-carpenter of Gardiner, Me., was robbed on the cars while on his way from Boston to Lowell, of $162. Cooper was on his way from Mobile, where he had been at work, and had his money, the proceeds of that work, in his bundle, which he put down at his feet

DISTRESSING CALAMITY — Capt. Jeremiah Thurlow of Crotch Island, his daughter, a grand daughter named Sarah Jordan, and two gentlemen strangers, supposed to belong in New York, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat off Deer Island, on Tuesday, the 15th inst Capt. Edward Beal, of Ellsworth, was in the boat, and also another grand daughter of Capt Thurlow named Helen Jordan, but they were both saved, the latter solely through the efforts of Capt Beal — Boston Jour

GREAT EMIGRATION —Last Monday, L D. Phillips and S F Washburn, agents for the Boston and Worcester, Western, and Lake Shore railroads, ticketed through to the West 113 passengers On the Monday before they ticketed 117, and the Monday before that 18, making in all 278 The most of these passengers took the steamer M Sanford at this city for Boston This number is exclusive of what went by their route from towns down river — Those who do not like to go to Boston in a steamboat, can be ticketed by them in the cars

Having been over this route to the West ourselves several times, we can confidently recommend it to the public Good roads, good refreshment stations, gentlemanly and accommodating officers, and sure connections of the different trains, are all that a passenger can get on any route, and our experience teaches us that they may always be found on this route to the west

If people will go west, against our advice, they cannot do better than to call upon the above named agents and secure their tickets News.

COLLECTING THEIR WAGES An Ohio paper says that after the failure of Mr Frazer, of Chillicothe, (liabilities $500 000,) his hands, numbering about two hundred, armed with all sorts of war like implements, held possession of the entire establishment during four days after the failure, refusing to admit officer or private inside the high board fence which surrounds the premises On the fourth day the civil authorities finding it impossible to gain admission to the building without bloodshed, paid each hand his wages

LOST IN A CORNFIELD Mr Daniel S Morrison was recently lost in an immense corn field in Hot Spring County, Arkansas, and wandered about for three days trying to find his way out! He was found on the fourth day by his negroes, who went out in search of him

It is the belief of millions in India, we are told by the Bombay Courier that the Koh i noor diamond will always be fatal to its possessor and that from the day it found a resting place in the diadem of Victoria, the fate of the English crown was sealed

The New York Tribune has some very melancholy forebodings of suffering among the poor during the coming winter in consequence of the great falling off in mechanical employments It says that there will probably be 100,000 persons in that city destitute of employment or means of living, by the first of December Soup houses for the poor will be needed before January.

It costs the New York Central Railroad Company one million three hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year for wood It is estimated that not less than one thousand cords are consumed daily—costing not less than $4 50 per cord.

Mr. Macaulay has, it is said, given up the idea of continuing his 'History of England down to period within the memory of living men," as at first announced, and will conclude it with the death of Queen Anne

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN. Mrs Paulina B Weston, wife of Hon Nathan Weston of this city, whose decease we announced in our last, was the third daughter of the late Hon Daniel Cony. She was a lady of good education, cultivated manners, great good sense and excellent heart She was a Christian in practice as well as sentiment—a Christian on Sunday and a Christian every day in the week.— Frugal in her houshold economy, and remarkably so in her own personal expenditure, she was uniformly, systematically charitable and benevolent—she was saving only to be liberal, and economical in her own affairs only to be bounteous to others. The poor were never turned away from her door, empty. Hundreds have been the recipients of her generous but judicious beneficence, who will hallow her memory as a benefactress and a true friend.

She was 70 years of age. Her illness was brief, and her death somewhat unexpected— although, perhaps, death ought not, at any time to be so regarded. Thus has passed from earth, one who was greatly and deservedly respected and beloved, not by her numerous family and relatives alone, but by her yet more numerous friends and acquaintances also, and lamented by all who had ever shared her genial society, her valued friendship or her liberal bounty She died as she had lived—a good woman —Age

At a public sale of books, the auctioneer put up Drew's Essay on Souls which was knocked down to a shoemaker, who very innocently, but to the great amusement of the crowded room, asked the auctioneer if he had "any more works on shoemaking to sell"

A certain old lady who has been famed for sour looks and not very sweet words, touching the accidents of life was observed to become very amiable "What happy change has come over you?" said a neighbor "Why, said the transformed "to tell you the truth, I have been all my life striving for a contented mind, and have finally concluded to sit down contented without it" A sensible woman that.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS HORSE The stallion Ticonderoga Black Hawk, which took the first prize at the United States Agricultural Fair, suddenly died last week, and is supposed to have been poisoned Mr Felton, the owner valued him at $10,000, and it is said a few days ago he declined an offer of $8000 for him

"The pepper dodge" is the latest refinement of street robbery in New York A fellow meets you and throws cayenne pepper in your eyes, his confederate comes up, inquires the cause of your agony, assists you in all his power, picks your pockets, throws in a handful of fresh pepper, and leaves

NEVER PART IN ANGER

Never part in anger—
Mortals ye are frail
Soon in Death's cold languor
Fiery checks may pale
Thy foe may fade ere thou forgive
Or thou, all wrath, may st cease to live

Never part unkindly
Lovers! ye are weak!
If ye utter blindly
Thoughts ye need not speak,
Go, turn your haste to Pity's side
While pity still may vanquish pride

Never part in anger—
Mortals ye are frail!
Soon in Death's cold languor
Fiery checks may pale
Twill sadden all thy term of life,
To bury friend or foe in strife

"Well mariner, which tooth do you want extracted Is it a molar or incisor?" asked a pompous dentist of a sailor patient Jack, short and sharp, replied "It's in the upper tier, on the larboard side Bear a hand you swab, for it's ripping my jaw like a bloody lobster

HARVESTING CORN—HINTS FOR THE SEASON From present appearances and the best information within our reach we think it may be pretty safely predicted that over a wide range of our country this is not destined to be a great corn year A large part of the growing corn is too late to fully mature, unless we have an unusually warm September and October a circumstance hardly to be expected There fore it will probably be the safer course for most farmers to cut up and shock their corn as soon as it will in any way answer that is, if it can be done before receiving much injury from frost, by so doing they may save much in the value of fodder, and much corn would ripen in the shocks that would be nearly ruined by frost

Corn which is harvested before it is properly ripened, and dried in the field, as much of it probably will be the coming harvest is sometimes injured when stored in large quantities If long continued damp or rainy weather succeeds the corn is very liable to heat and mould, &c, injuring its mealing qualities To guard against such loss, we have known farmers to have a tight box stove in their corn houses and then keep up a brisk fire a portion of the time during the damp weather thereby drying the corn very fast and saving it from injury —Country Gentleman

THE SUPPLY OF SUGAR IN FRANCE Mr Walsh, in his Paris letter to the New York Journal of Commerce says

"Sugar is failing the beet root factories will supply this year two hundred and fifty million pounds The isle of Reunion (Bourbon) will produce one hundred and twenty millions, the French West Indies will probably send a hundred millions Altogether the supply will exceed the demand in France

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

...e telegraph gives us, from the Independ...nt a list of 86 failures for the past week—nearly all in New York city, Philadelphia and the west. Not one in this list from New England. Among the failures is that of the Lackawanna Railroad and Coal Company, New York; also that of John Wooley, proprietor of the Bank of the Capital, Indianapolis.—The Philadelphia failures are numerous and heavy.

Another Balloon Ascension.

ST JOHNSBURY Vt 24th

Mr Lee Wise made a successful ascension in his balloon, Young America, this afternoon—...ing in forty minutes, about eight miles distant. About 20 000 people were present.

The Firemen's Muster at Hartford.

HARTFORD, 24th

The firemen have had a great time to-day in this city. The weather has been very fine, and everything the largest ever got together on such occasion in this city. Over fifty companies comprising 2000 firemen, were in the procession. 39 companies took part in the competition for the prizes, which were eight in number.

The following companies took the prizes—Second Hose Mass 186 ft 9 inches, Mayflower No 3 Bridgewater, Mass 180 ft 4, Neptune No 2 New Haven 170 ft 2. Jasper Provident 166 ft 4 Catharsit, Poughkeepsie, Hose 160 Collinsville, of Collinsville, Ct 145 Hydrokee of Holyoke, Mass 161, Barnegat of Boston 160 ft 4.

To-morrow the firemen have a parade, and visit the various public institutions. In the afternoon Mr W P Leonard, accompanied by a band will make a grand balloon ascension.

Various Items.

WASHINGTON, Sept 24

During the fiscal year ending June 30th the amount of public lands sold was nearly 1 143 000 acres and the receipts were upwards of $3 500 000.

The President left the city this morning to make a visit to Lancaster, and will return on Monday.

Orders have been issued from the Navy Department for the preparation of the sloop of war Vincennes, to join the African squadron.

Francis H Burns has been appointed Post Master of Dover N H, vice Upham.

The President has recognized the following named Spanish consuls—Jose Nunoz at Savannah, Juan Rico Vallenneuva at Mobile, and Enrique Fallon of Boston.

Good Example. The Belfast Age says:

The members of our Artillery are loud in their praises of the reception they met with on their recent visit to Bangor. They were received by and made the guests of that noble and high minded company the Brewer Artillery from which they received the kindest and most gentlemanly attentions. During their stay in Brewer a ball was given them, on which occasion the politeness of Brewer evinced the true gentleman in making them feel at home. We understand the Brewer Artillery propose to return the visit to Company Artillery, but all our citizens will be glad to welcome them.

When the Belfast Artillery returned home, they were received by the City Greys, Capt Emil Marsh and escorted to Pierce's Hall, where some very complimentary remarks were made by Adjutant General Wilder.

IMPORTANT DECISION. The N Y Herald says that the Attorney General has made a decision to the following purport:

That the practice heretofore prevailing in the Pension Office of allowing the children of Revolutionary soldiers to receive the pensions of their deceased parents might have received no legal foundation, and that neither children nor grand children have such claim under the acts of Congress. This will stop the practice of twenty five years.

THE PRESSURE IN BOSTON. The Journal of 22d says the rates for money still continued at 18 to 24 per cent with a decrease in the banks since last week of $1 248 000 in loans, $159,000 in specie, $184,000 in circulation, and $1 352 000 in deposits.

Emmons, Denforth & Grover, wholesale grocers in South Market Street, failed on Tuesday—liabilities $300 000.

Wm H Brett & Co Federal Street stopped payment on Wednesday. Liabilities $300,000. Expected they offer 7s per cent.

It is well said that "Yankee enterprise," now becomes another name for wild speculation, has ruined the merchants.

Democratic papers are praising the wisdom of the Constitutional Convention of Kansas in adjourning over the election. This, says Providence Journal, was most judicious. Had the convention framed such a constitution as the propagandists of slavery demand, the triumph of the Free State party would have been certain. Of course they would not dare to frame any other. Their only escape from the difficulty of their position was to turn.

Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime.

The wonderful power of this new remedy to those who have been restored from confirmed consumption by the use of this original preparation of the great fish, fully entitles themselves have by recommending its wonderful efficacy, have given it an unparalleled popularity in New England—Although it is but a few months since this combination robbed of its unpleasant taste and rendered doubly effective in being combined with the Lime which is found a restorative principle in the human system, it has already gained a world wide reputation, and is fast superseding all other preparations for the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Liver Complaint, Debility, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Prepared only by A B WILBOR, Chemist, 128 Washington Street, Boston. For sale by all Druggists. The genuine has the signature of A B Wilbor on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

HALL'S New Stump Machine!

I HAVE INVENTED an improved STUMP PULLER which two men can carry about the field from one stump to another, and draw the largest pine stumps out of the ground by hand power, without oxen, horses, ropes or blocks, and without digging round.

This is a great improvement on Stump Machines as two men will take up a common stump in about two minutes, and dispenses with any team and can be worked when the ground is soft in the spring and does not break up the grass held as by the old process of a heavy team.

This Machine is entirely different from any ever used before it comes cheaper, and is very durable. Price $50. I have them now on hand and for sale at my mill in Brewer, Me W HALL

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF HONEY MAKING.

☞ Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE subscriber having purchased the right of making and selling Davis' Patent Bee Hive for the Counties of Penobscot Lincoln and Sagadahoc which has been received with so much favor and taken the first premiums wherever exhibited has introduced an improvement into the Bee Hive and is now prepared to make the same in connection with the Davis Platform, and to sell rights to towns and individuals

This Bee Hive thus improved is admitted by persons acquainted with the honey making business to be superior to every thing yet invented for the purpose It covers all the requisitions for the profitable maintenance of the apiary, by providing for ventilation at all seasons of the year—room for the exercise and feed of the bees—convenience for the removal of excrement, for the proper separation of the swarms, and generally for the health and comfort of the workers

The boxes used in this Hive for storing honey, are the best adapted in their size, for the market, holding from three to six pounds each

The subscriber wishes to purchase one hundred swarms of bees in exchange for bee hives and individual rights

For sale, fifty swarms of Bees, with the new hives

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING,

AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician

IS it not a truth that when the feet are often wet it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks, but when it is water proof this is remedied By the application of this preservative, it remains soft and entirely impervious to water

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather At last by a chemical process I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned It will not only make leather water proof but it likewise softens the leather and it will

Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery, with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market

Dr McVICAR, of Boonville Oneida Co , N Y , says "Say to your Agents, I consider them an excellent Pill, and use them in my practice "

If the Blood becomes impure it is traced to stoppage of the natural drains of the system viz of the bowels—the lungs, kidneys and skin—The blood and intestines must relieve themselves of all their worn out particles and poisonous humors, which must go through the channels that nature has designed
